THE PLAY AT CALGARY

The Edmonton Rinks Figure Prominently in all the Different Competitions.

(Bulletin Special Dispatch.)
Calgary, Jan. 22.—Edmonton is still represented in all the leading competitions in the bungalow.
In the Grand Challenge Lauder played one game yesterday and defeated Hunter, of Priddy. That put him in the semi-finals. He will play Tullock of Golden, this morning, the winner to go into the final.

Giles is the Edmonton representative in the McNeill Trophy. He qualified for the semifinals yesterday by defeating Mathers by a runaway game of 23 to 0.

Yesterday morning three Edmonton rinks were in the competition for the Brevin Cup. This morning Giles is the only representative. Coding was beaten by Thom, of Golden. In the struggle for the finals Giles defeated Lauder in the first round. Giles plays McNeill today, the winner to go to the semi-finals.
In the Burns Trophy, which was a contest between seven Calgary rinks and seven visiting rinks, the visitors were badly beaten. Lauder was beaten by Walker by 23 points to 5. Play is going on for the visitors and the consolation prize.
It is expected that 23 games will be played today.

COMMITTEES APPOINTED

The nominating committee appointed by the meeting held to consider the advisability of starting a Young Men's Christian association in Edmonton has made the following appointments:

Canvassing committee—E. T. Biggar, H. Aldridge, A. E. May, T. M. Turnbull, G. B. McLeod, R. V. Bellamy, C. W. Mathers, Dr. R. H. Smith.

Site and equipment—W. T. Henry, H. Gilbert and Messrs. Emery and Monson.

The nominating committee requested Principal Riddell to act as convener of these committees.

The site and equipment committee is called for Tuesday, Jan. 26th, at 5 o'clock in Room B, Alberta college.

The committee will meet in room A, Alberta college, at 7:30 on Tuesday evening, Jan. 26th.

STIFF BARGAIN WITH G.T.P.

Referring to the announcement of the calling of another session of parliament, the Globe says:

"We are told in all sorts of type that 'Gor can't wait.' The fact of the matter is that any man who carried away by party zeal realized that the government had driven a hard bargain with Mr. Hays and his associates. That is what we should expect of them. They are the custodians of the public interest, and the public has a right to look to them to gain as many advantages for the people as shrewd bargaining would yield."

Mr. Hays' friends in London seem to consider the conditions are too stringent, and presumably they will not go on with the enterprise unless the terms are modified.
"All that need be said as to this is, it has not hitherto been the experience in the country that government bargains are so favorable to the people that capitalists are indisposed to accept them. But a new era seems to have come and the people's representatives are not above negotiating as if the people's interests were their own instead of those of the railway."

"Nothing should be said here or elsewhere to weaken the hands of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his colleagues, but it is unquestionably the fact that there is a strong desire that the great project should go through and that they will be supported in granting such far concessions as will secure the early prosecution of the great work."

SUCCESSFUL FORGER

The police are trying to find a young man, who by means of forgery secured the sum of $10 from C. T. Gilbert, the Stephen Avenue confectioner.

Last week a young man who gave his name as George Bates went into Mr. Gilbert's store and asked him to cash a check which he intimated had been given to him by H. S. McLeod, the well known boniface. The check was cashed, but later it was discovered to be a forgery. Mr. McLeod had given no such check to anyone, and besides on close examination it was found that the name was spelled MacLeod instead of McLeod. The writing was nothing like H. S. McLeod's either.

RAILWAY POLICIES

Prince Albert Advocate.

The tory railway policy for the West—its real policy, as stated by the indiscreet Senator Perley—possesses the merit of being brief, clearcut and precise.

"We needed the Canadian Pacific, but we do not need the Grand Trunk Pacific. There is no need for another railway, the Canadian Pacific is enough," and the Senator added, "let us legislate for the good of the country and vote against the Grand Trunk Pacific."

Could language be clearer, more positive, or free from doubt? One can understand a lover of Canada voting against a particular contract for building even an admittedly desirable road. But it will be seen that it is not the terms or form of the charter that is found fault with by the Senator; it is the idea of "another railway" that he objects to.

"Let us legislate for the good of the country!" Yes, put "us" the Tories, in power—give us the right to legislate for the good of the country? Well, if that is the way you would legislate, the people of the West will not help you.

OPERATIC SOCIETY

The Operatic Society will commence work on Tuesday evening next. Until Sanderson Hall is ready, rehearsals will be held in the All Saints school room. Tuesday's practice will commence at eight o'clock and every member of the chorus is expected to be present.

Vocal scores of the opera may be obtained by application to the secretary of the society, (Mr. F. A. Aylwin, of the firm of Aylwin & Williams, real estate) at the reduced price of a dollar and a quarter. The purchase of the score entitles the purchaser to the active membership ticket of the society, without further payment, and the score should be obtained before Tuesday's rehearsal.

CURLING

At the Calgary banquet on Tuesday and Wednesday:
Giles, Edmonton, 16; Thom, Golden, 3.
McNeill, Calgary, 15; Rae, Edmonton, 10.
Thom, Golden, 14; Mercer, Edmonton, 4.
Giles, Edmonton, 16; Brown, Revelstoke, 10.
Cushing, Edmonton, 14; Trimble, Lacombe, 10.
Pinner, Calgary, 14; Rae, Edmonton, 3.
Lander, Edmonton, 12; Smith, Calgary, 10.
Spafford, Calgary, 13; Mercer, Edmonton, 3.

The Calgary Herald remarks that "it's just a little bit inconsistent for a Methodist rink to win in a brewery competition," and "one of the most interesting of yesterday afternoon's games was that between Cushing's rink, of Edmonton, and Spafford's, of Calgary."

HOCKEY

The Wetaskiwin hockey team came up to Edmonton last night to play a friendly practice match with our local seniors. A large crowd witnessed the match. Goodridge, Edmonton, played goal for the visitors, whose own goal keeper was unable to be present. The playing was a little too one-sided to be very interesting after the strenuous matches between Edmonton and Strathcona. Nobody seems to know the exact score, but it was something in favor of the Edmonton aggregation.

The teams lined up as follows:

Edmonton Goal Wetaskiwin.
Matheson Goal Goodridge.
Banford Point Montgomery.
Helliwell Corner Point Murphy.
Sibbald Rover.
McDougall Left Wing Sharpe.
Wright Centre Aylmer.
McLeod Right Wing McDonough.
Impire, Forbes and Johnston.
Referee, Dr. Strong.

After the match the Edmonton senior hockey team entertained the Wetaskiwin team to a splendid banquet at the Criterion restaurant. The utmost good-fellowship prevailed and after the good things had been partaken of, an interchange of compliments filled up the balance of the evening.

A full report of the match and banquet proceedings will appear in tomorrow's Bulletin.

PETER TALBOT

UNANIMOUSLY CHOSEN

To Contest the Strathcona Constituency in the Liberal Interests for the House of Commons—Representative and Enthusiastic Convention.

Peter Talbot, M.L.A., of Lacombe, was Wednesday night unanimously chosen the Liberal standard bearer in the Strathcona (City) district, for the House of Commons. The convention was largely attended, very representative and extremely enthusiastic and when the result of the first poll was made known and it was shown that Peter Talbot was the practically unanimous choice of the meeting, loud and prolonged and enthusiastic cheering broke out and lasted for several minutes.

A. S. Rosenroll, M.L.A., and Eugene Rhian, president and secretary respectively, of the central association, presided over the meeting.

Mr. Rosenroll briefly stated the purpose of the convention and cautioned the delegates to lay aside all personal or local considerations and to choose a man who will in every way be acceptable to the electors and who will be sure to carry the constituency.

The early part of the meeting was taken up with the preliminary matters of appointing committees, etc. Upon motion of C. D. Algar and O. Broderman the presidents of the local Liberal associations of Strathcona, Wetaskiwin, Lacombe, Red Deer and Innisfail were appointed a committee on credentials. On motion of J. McKenzie and N. D. Mills, A. C. Rutherford, M.L.A.; A. S. Rosenroll, M.L.A.; P. Talbot, M.L.A., and J. A. Simpson, M.L.A., set as committee on procedure and resolutions. This committee was also empowered to add to their number. The meeting then adjourned to await the report of the committee.

Upon reassembly the committee on credentials reported that the following delegates were entitled to seats in the convention. We give them here from the four local electoral districts:

Strathcona—J. F. K. Farie, A. C. Rutherford, W. McIntyre, J. M. Hobson, J. G. Tipton, J. McPhadden, Thos. McGee, A. Laughlin, M. McCauley, Thos. Brunell, A. H. Goodwin, Robt. Ridd, N. D. Mills, J. J. McKenzie, Lawrence Garneau, Jacob Cawell.

Wetaskiwin—A. R. Dickson, G. B. Henwood, W. J. McNamara, C. Olin, C. H. Swanson, O. Broderman, A. S. Rosenroll, G. P. Smith, F. Blades, B. A. VanMeter, R. J. Purvis, J. B. Holden, Rev. F. A. Mulder, Dr. Baker, John Grigat.

Lacombe—J. J. Gaetz, W. Phillips, S. E. Bannerman, A. J. Nelsberg, Wm. Spafford, W. F. Puffer, J. D. Skinner, F. Vickers, (2), Jas. Frizell, J. H. Webster, C. C. Reed, W. J. O'Brien, C. D. Algar.

Innisfail—J. A. Simpson, H. A. Malcolm, A. McFee, A. A. Carpenter, (2), J. Farrar, Robt. Wynn, J. Duncan, E. Robinson, A. D. McKenzie, (2), Joe Smith, A. B. Wilson, G. E. Johnson.

The report of the committee on credentials was adopted and the following report submitted by the committee on credentials:

That an informal ballot be first taken without nominations. That an opportunity be then given the candidates whose names were mentioned to retire from the field. That subsequent ballots be then taken until one of the candidates should receive an absolute majority of the votes cast.

The report was duly accepted and the following scrutineers appointed upon motion of M. McCauley and C. C. Reed: C. W. Cross, P. E. Butcher, and P. E. Loosard, all of Edmonton.

Upon the taking of the informal ballot S. Wilson, C. H. Swanson, Peter Talbot, A. C. Rutherford, M. McCauley, J. A. Simpson, Dr. W. McIntyre, A. S. Rosenroll, C. D. Algar, and A. R. Dixon were placed in nomination as candidates to contest the seat.

The policy of the Liberal party appeals strongly to the farmers of Western Canada. He spoke strongly in favor of the Dominion immigration policy. The west did not get population until it got the Liberal party in power at Ottawa. The tariff question was one of great importance to Western Canada, and the need of a low tariff is imperative.

The transportation question is one of supreme importance. If the Canadian Pacific Railway gets another grant on this country, as the Conservatives wish to give them, no other railway company will be able to compete with them. To provide for increased railway facilities, the Liberal party must be returned at the next elections. He strongly supported the Grand Trunk Pacific railway project.

In regard to provincial autonomy, he believed that in a very short time the Territories should assume provincial status, but that the great and important consideration is the terms and we can only look to the Liberal party to give us our just rights. The Liberal party has always taken the lead in granting provincial autonomy. Mr. Talbot stated that if Mr. Rutherford would not allow his name to go before the convention, but if Mr. Rutherford refused to stand he left himself in the hands of the delegates would accept the nomination. Mr. Talbot took his seat amid great applause.

A. C. Rutherford was greeted with cheers on taking the platform. He was greatly pleased with his reception. He, however, could not allow his name to go before the convention for business reasons. He eulogized the policy of the Liberal government at Ottawa, and promised the choice of the convention his enthusiastic support.

M. McCauley was pleased to be a delegate at such an enthusiastic and representative convention. He could not understand how any good common sense farmer could vote for the Conservative policy at the present time. He promised to work hard for the Liberal nominee in the Strathcona constituency.

J. A. Simpson, M.L.A., Innisfail, was the next speaker. He had been twenty-five years in the country and saw it under two administrations. If in 1896 it was our duty to support the Liberal policy, it was now a hundred times more so. Regarding provincial autonomy, he believed to be a matter of terms, that was of most vital importance. He believed in a low tariff policy.

Dr. McIntyre reviewed the great progress of the country during the last seven years, showing the great benefits of the Liberal administration. The main suggestions of the Canadian prime ministers had been adopted in other countries which was an eloquent tribute to the personality of the Liberal cabinet. Canada had risen from a state of stagnation until now it was an inspiration to the Empire. The aim of the Liberal party was to unify the different races in the country and make them all Canadians. He promised the Liberal candidate the entire support of the North.

C. D. Algar of Ponoka, announced that although he could not stand for the nomination he will work hard for the Liberal nominee. He advised great caution in the selection of a candidate.

A. R. Dickson assured the convention of a tremendous majority from the Wetaskiwin district for the Liberal nominee.

A. S. Rosenroll, M.L.A., said that he had been holding numerous Liberal organization meetings and he was confident that the Wetaskiwin district was overwhelmingly Liberal. Business and family considerations prevented him from accepting the nomination. He retired in favor of Mr. Talbot, and promised him a very heavy vote from the Wetaskiwin district.

This concluded the list of speakers, the only names now before the convention being Messrs. Simpson, Talbot and Wilson. A vote was taken which proved to be practically unanimous for Mr. Talbot. The nomination was made absolutely unanimous, on motion of R. Wilson, seconded by J. A. Simpson.

Defeating cheers greeted Mr. Talbot as Mr. Wilson hurried him to the platform. Mr. Talbot was pleased with the honor conferred on him in being the unanimous choice of the great Liberal party in the great Strathcona constituency. He would work hard to be elected to support the people of this district. He said that he was a farmer and a poor farmer and depended on the people for their support, not having money enough nor inclination to buy his way to parliament, as Conservative nominees in other parts of the Northwest appeared to be doing.

C. W. Cross, of Edmonton, complimented the Liberals of the Strathcona constituency on their splendid convention, and clearly showed how the Conservative party is allied with the manufacturers in robbing the Western Canadian farmers.

C. C. Reed of Ponoka, delivered a very forcible speech. All hope for the future belongs with the Liberal party. In referring to the tariff question, he said that Canadian Conservatives were now taking on the garment of high protection which the people of the United States were endeavoring to shuffle off. He was not yet a naturalized Canadian, but he loved Canada too much to see it assume any coat of American garment. The United States had progressed in spite of a high protective tariff policy, not because of it. He believed in Western Canada and in the Liberal policy. He took his seat amid great applause.

Geo. P. Smith, of Duhamel, made perhaps the most striking speech of the whole convention. The large proportion of the people of the west were without politics and would listen to honest and reasonable argument and he was confident that the policy of the Liberal party would appeal to them. He spoke splendidly on the remarkable progress made by Canada since 1896 and closed with an eloquent tribute to Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

Judge Tipton delivered a very forcible speech, denouncing the Conservative policy and strongly supporting the Liberal tariff and transportation policies. No country can become rich by over-taxing itself.

A. S. Rosenroll was pleased with the choice of the convention. All must put their shoulders to the wheel and make his election sure. He offered the candidate all possible assistance. The Liberals have to fight against a large Conservative campaign fund, furnished by the Campaign fund, furnished by the Campaign fund, furnished by the Campaign fund.

The following resolutions were unanimously carried amid great enthusiasm:

We, the Liberals of the Strathcona electoral constituency, in convention assembled, resolve as follows:

(1) We desire to express our unabated confidence in the Liberal administration under the able leadership of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and more particularly we wish to endorse the policy of the Liberal government in dealing with western affairs.

(2) We wish to endorse the tariff policy of the Liberal administration, which policy we believe to be the best, not only in the interests of the western farming community, but also in the best interests of the people of eastern Canada.

(3) We have viewed with approval the policy of the Liberal government in the manner with which they have dealt with the transportation question in this country, and look to the introduction of the Grand Trunk policy as a means of relief from the burdensome monopoly of the Canadian Pacific Company, which has so long retarded western development.

(4) We have the utmost confidence that the Liberal government will, in dealing with the question of the organization of the Northwest Territories into a province or provinces, deal justly and fairly with the people of the Territories, as the Liberal party have always been the party in Canada to champion the principle of local self-government.

(5) We desire to place on record our deep appreciation and regard for our representative, Mr. Frank Oliver, M.P., and take this opportunity of expressing our approval of the manly stand he has taken while representing us in the House of Commons.

(6) Whereas, prior to the election of 1896, the creamery industry of the Northwest Territories was in a most deplorable condition and the late Conservative government, through the Hon. Mr. Foster, had absolutely declined to assist the enterprise in any manner; and whereas, upon the government of Sir Wilfrid Laurier coming into power, with commendable expedition took hold of the department of agriculture and organized the creamery interests of the Territories, conducting them to the satisfaction and great financial betterment of the settlers, therefore this convention desires to express its hearty approval of their action in this behalf. And we further desire to express our unbounded appreciation of the masterly manner in which the Hon. Mr. Fisher, as minister of agriculture, has administered his department as a whole, thereby advancing the farming interests of the Dominion from ocean to ocean immensely.

A hearty vote of thanks was tendered the chairman, A. S. Rosenroll. The convention closed with defeating and prolonged cheering for Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and Peter Talbot, M.P.

Local theatre patrons enjoyed a great treat in Mr. Harold Nelson's performance this season, and must realize that the elaborate staging of the various plays presented contributed largely to the general enjoyment of the audience. Manager Walker, of the Winnipeg theatre, who is directing Mr. Nelson's tour, and who provided such complete stage settings for his plays, has arranged with a company of metropolitan comedians, headed by Millard Reid, to appear here shortly in Geo. H. Broadhurst's London and New York comedy success, "What Happened to Jones." The piece will be given with special scenery and handsome costumes—in fact, exactly the same as in the larger cities. This is an exceptional comedy treat for local theatre-goers, who have had nothing better than repertoire companies' performances of comedy. "What Happened to Jones" is booked for presentation here on Friday and Saturday, January 29th and 30th.
